not like that _____

> _____

(it's not like I care for you > even if your moonlight hair drives my fingers wild and aching > longing to caress.)

(it's not like I feel for you > the way you speak with silence and how you know the way it feels > to have a bleeding heart.)

(it's not like I love you > even if I want to kiss your pale lips so silkspun soft > and make you kiss me back.)

(it's not like you're listening > because I'm speaking with my heart a language you are deaf to > the eye of you that's blind.)

(and it's not like I give a damn > about the way I feel)

(it's not like that

> at all.)
